

FREE DROP-IN Documentaries
December Schedule

Pangolin Kulu's Journey Documentary
Friday, December 4
2:30 - 4:00 P.M.

For Wildlife Conservation Day, follow Kulu, a rescued baby pangolin, as she is cared for and prepared to return to the wild.

Angels Too Soon: The School Fire of '58
Monday, December 7
3:00 - 4:00 P.M.

On December 1, 1958, a devastating fire swept through Our Lady of the Angels school in Chicago's Humboldt Park neighborhood, killing 92 children and three nuns. Survivors, their families, and community members share their harrowing memories of that day and the heartbreaking aftermath. Audio-narrated descriptions are available.

Rick Steves' European Christmas Documentary
Saturday, December 19
10:30-11:30 A.M.

Celebrate the Christmas season throughout the European continent.

Mary Berry's Ultimate Christmas
Monday, December 21
3:00 - 4:00 P.M.

Mary Berry shares her ultimate Christmas feast with all the trimmings.

World's Greatest New Year's Eve
Monday, December 28
3:00 - 4:00 P.M.

Witness the ultimate global party as New Year's Eve transforms cities worldwide for the planet's most electrifying shared moment. Humanity counts down together from Sydney's harbor fireworks to Times Square's glittering ball drop.

