

Proclamation

Whereas The American Cancer Society and the NWS Women's Cancer Coalition is teaming up with area hospitals and other community partners during National Colorectal Cancer Awareness Month; and

Whereas Colorectal Cancer is still remains the third leading cause of cancer death in both men and women in the United States; and

Whereas America is making progress in the fight against colorectal cancer and that colorectal cancer is one of only a few cancers that can actually be prevented through the use of regular screening tests; and

Whereas last year, "Real Women Wear Blue" participants included representatives from the Northwest Suburban Women's Cancer Coalition, Alexian Brothers Medical Center, City of Des Plaines, City of Rolling Meadows, Hanover Township, Northwest Community Hospital, Palatine Opportunity Center, Wheeling Township and individual community members; and

Whereas a champion for the initiative in 2009 was Trish Simon, Director of Community Health for Hanover Township, Colon Cancer survivor and member of the NWS Women's Cancer Coalition; and

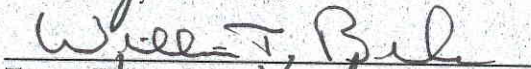

Whereas Trish Simon coordinated 100 participants for the "Real Women Wear Blue" initiative and organized for Hanover Township a resolution that declaring a "Real Women Wear Blue,"

Therefore, the Town Board of the Township of Hanover, in the County of Cook, State of Illinois hereby resolves that Wednesday, March 10 to be wear blue attire and blue star colorectal pin for women, and the month of March 2010 to be National Colorectal Cancer Awareness Month in Hanover Township.

Dated this 2nd day of March, 2010

In Witness Whereof, we have hereunto to set our hands and caused the seal of Hanover Township to be affixed hereto.

Trustee Mary Alice Benoit

Trustee William Burke

Trustee Howard Krick

Trustee Sandra Westlund-Deenihan

Supervisor Brian McGuire

Clerk Katy Dolan Baumer

